

Aden Refinery Co.

INTRODUCTION:

The Aden Refinery Company was established in 1954 by the B.P. Company. Then the company was owned by the state and took its present which is Aden Refinery Company as a legal body – public sector – according to the rules of law no. 15 for the year 1977.

MAIN JOBS OF THE COMPANY:

- 1- Refining and manufacturing crude oil.
- 2- Marketing petroleum derivatives.
- 3- Providing fuel to ships.
- 4- Sea transporting petroleum derivatives.

FUNCTIONS AND TERMS OF REFERENCE:

- 1- Administration and Operation of the Refinery.
- 2- Purchasing and refining crude oil and selling petroleum derivatives for local and foreign markets and also refining for other companies.
- 3- Making and executing refining contracts with other companies.
- 4- Caring for the welfare of the skilled and unskilled Yemeni workers, and placing programs which ensure development of their abilities.
- 5- Presenting plans and programs for development of crude oil industry.
- 6- Preparation of engineering and technical studies and researches for the development of the existing units.
- 7- Application of the rules and systems for the industrial safety and security .
- 8- Safeguarding of strategic stock of oil products.
- 9- Providing oil products to the Yemeni Ports in all cases and conditions to keep supply stability.
- 10- Exporting and importing oil derivatives.